Subject: - JSY payment through AADHAR enabled Bank A/C.

Sir,

In continuation to memorandums vide even No. dated 31st December 2012 and 17th January 2013 [copy enclosed], I would like to draw your kind attention to district-wise status of JSY beneficiaries with linkage to AADHAR and Bank A/C under MCTS as on 28th February 2013 [copy enclosed at Annex-I], wherein it is observed that only 42% and 21% of the probable JSY beneficiaries with information regarding AADHAR/ EID No. and Bank A/C details respectively could be collected.

2. Further, status of registration of the pregnant women based on Last Menstrual Period (LMP) for the year 2012-13 is also enclosed at Annex-II wherein the percentage of registration also ask for huge improvement through field works. Lead Bank i.e UBI have categorically assured to open no frill Bank Account in favour of individual potential JSY beneficiary on request from Health & Family Welfare Department /NRHM field functionaries. CMOS/SDMOs/MO I/Cs should remain in close touch with the Lead Bank Managers of the Districts.

3. For the purpose of collecting AADHAR No / EID number of potential JSY beneficiaries, AADHAR Nodal Officer at District level may be contacted whenever felt necessary under the guidance of DM & Collector of the District.

4. GOI has been insisting repeatedly through Video Conferences and written communications on all payment to JSY beneficiaries electronically through CPSMS portal from 1st April 2013 onwards.

5. In view of above, you are requested to look into the matter personally and to submit report as per the format enclosed at Annex-III every fortnight from 1st March 2013 onwards

6. This communication may also be downloaded from the Tripura NRHM website (http://tripuranrhm.gov.in)

Enclo:- As Stated.

Yours faithfully,

MEMORANDUM

Subject: Payment to beneficiaries under JSY through AADHAR enabled payment system – Reg.

In continuation to the Memorandum vide NO.F.3 (5-2716)-FWPM/SHFWS/2012 dated 31st December 2012 following actions are required to be taken on immediate basis as follows:-

(i) All Multi-Purpose Workers (MPWs) and ASHAs need to be sensitized for ensuring early registration of all pregnant women particularly those who could be JSY beneficiaries along with recording of their AADHAR/ EID No. of AADHAR and Bank Account details in the integrated RCH/ANC Register. The potential JSY beneficiaries should be informed in advance to carry AADHAR Card or EID No. of AADHAR and Bank Account details or KYC documents (photographs, proof of identity and proof of residence) while coming for ANC and for delivery in the health facility.

(ii) Following this, seeding of AADHAR No./ EID No. of AADHAR and the Bank Accounts of probable JSY beneficiaries at MCTS portal need to be ensured. Necessary information need to be shared with the related Banks to ensure registration of those accounts at CPSMS portal.

(iii) The aforesaid new payment system shall be applicable both for existing (pregnant women registered from 1st April 2012 onwards) as well as for the newly registered JSY beneficiaries recorded under the Mother Child Tracking System (MCTS).

2. This is for information and necessary action of all concerned.

MEMORANDUM

Under National Rural Health Mission, Janani Suraksha Yojana (JSY) has been implemented in the State of Tripura since 2006. Under the existing scheme, cheques are issued to the mothers after 48 hours of delivery as per procedure by the health institutions. Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Government of India vide their letter D.O.No.Z.14018/33/2012-JSY dated 4th December 2012 has requested the State Government to introduce AADHAR enabled payment system w.e.f. 1st January 2013 under which Bank Account linking with EID/ AADHAR No. shall have to be opened in the name of beneficiary mother of JSY before issuing account payee cheque to the beneficiary mother. Simultaneously, EID/ AADHAR No. and Bank Account No. of the mother shall have to be uploaded/ enrolled in the MCTS portal. Accordingly, field functionaries shall have to undertake ground works for implementation of the new system of AADHAR enabled payment in a time bound manner and collect detailed information as under:-
